MINUTES – MATTERS ARISING

Due to work demands Pete Boyle has resigned from CANI Council. Keith Fitzsimmons has been nominated as CANI's rep on the BCU's board of directors.

RECREATIONAL MEMBERSHIP

Ashley has suggested a membership for non-coaching members with a fee of about £15. Discussion took place on what would be included in this membership – insurance, canoe focus, discounts from outdoor stores, reduced fees to paddlesport events etc. This will be brought up at a later meeting. There will be a paddlesport evening at Tiso's in Belfast on Mon 3rd October from 6-8pm.

NEW STAR AWARDS

It was decided that we would buy blanks of the new star awards from BCU and overprint them with the award.

THE OFFICE

Davy Boyle will attend the seminar on Line Management on 25th September and 2nd October in the House of Sport.

MODERNISATION

The AHL audit was discussed and Davy outlined the duties which members of council could take on. Mike will e-mail these tasks to council members. Stephen will talk to Tracy Smith in Sport NI about accounting packages.

DATE OF NEXT MEETING

The next meeting will be held on Mon 1st October at 7pm in the office at Lagan Watersports, 11-13 Ravenhill Road, Belfast.
